

THE CHARIS PROJECT

The aim of the Charis Project is to promote the spiritual and moral development of pupils through the teaching of a range of subjects across the curriculum.

The Charis Project resources have been published in the following subjects: English, French, German, Mathematics and Science. Full details are available on the inside back cover.

The Charis Project had been funded by the Jerusalem Trust, one of the Sainsbury Family Charitable Trusts.

The Charis Modern Foreign Languages Team:

Helen Aberdeen	The Sir Bernard Lovell School, Bristol
Dave Baker	The Sir Bernard Lovell School, Bristol
Laurian Cooper	MFL teacher, Somerset Tuition Service
Helen Gillingham	formerly Larkmead School, Abingdon
David Smith	Researcher in foreign language education and formerly The Village Community School, Derby
Catherine Worth	The Henry Box School, Witney
Ben Slater	Daventry William Parker School, Daventry

Writer:	Helen Gillingham
Editors:	Alison Farnell with David Smith and Heather Miller
Theological Advisor:	Rev. Jonathan Mortimer

The Charis Modern Foreign Languages Team are grateful for the advice and comments from the following teachers during the preparation of these resources:

Shirley Dobson	formerly Westminster College, Oxford
Keith Heywood	formerly Homerton College, Cambridge

The Team also wishes to thank Kari Gattwinkel, Volker Green and Yvonne Seidel for their help with language accuracy.

Project Manager:	Alison Farnell	Head of Curriculum Resources, The Stapleford Centre
Project Assistants:	Wylva Davies, Heather Miller, Catherine O'Connell

Graphic Design:	Alex Marsden, "Splash! Creative Design", 28 Marlborough Road, Nottingham NG5 4FG t: 0115 926 6809 e: info@splash-design.co.uk
Illustrations:	Richard Warren, St Chad's Rectory, The Windings, Lichfield, Staffs WS13 7EX
Printer:	Progressive Printers, Westbury Road, Basford, Nottingham NG5 1EJ t: 0115 970 1485

---