

Ein Jahr in Deutschland

Moral and spiritual aims

- To enable pupils to discern between those holidays and festivals which have a religious significance and those which are purely secular.
- The sequence of religious festivals throughout the year builds up a picture of some of the main events in the life of Jesus.

Overview of the unit:

This is an activity based unit, focussing on a game. It follows the cycle of religious and secular holidays and festivals in German-speaking countries throughout a calendar year. As an introduction to the game, there is a German/English matching exercise with the names of the festivals. In the game itself, players move round a board; progress is based on recognising whether the festivals have religious significance or not. Finally there is an exercise ordering significant events in the life of Jesus, using some of the festivals in the earlier part of the unit. This could be used just before Easter.

Arbeitsblätter 1a and 1b - Ein Jahr in Deutschland

Each pupil will need a copy of Arbeitsblatt 1a to complete. They also need to be able to refer to the left hand section of Arbeitsblatt 1b. This contains the missing information from the columns of English and German festival names on Arbeitsblatt 1a. These can be completed either by writing in the missing information, or by cutting them out and sticking them in place. Lower ability pupils should be encouraged to use dictionaries. Definitions are only given where needed.

Solutions:

New Year's Day = Neujahrstag
 Epiphany = Dreikönigsfest
 St. Valentine's Day = Valentinstag
 Monday before Ash Wednesday = Rosenmontag
 Shrove Tuesday = Fastnacht/Faschingsdienstag
 Ash Wednesday = Aschermittwoch
 1st day of Spring = Frühlingsanfang
 Palm Sunday = Palmsonntag
 Maundy Thursday = Gründonnerstag
 Good Friday = Karfreitag
 Easter Sunday = Ostersonntag
 May Day Bank Holiday = Tag der Arbeit
 Mother's Day = Muttertag
 Ascension = Christi Himmelfahrt
 Pentecost = Pfingstsonntag
 1st day of Summer = Sommeranfang
 Assumption of Blessed Virgin Mary = Maria Himmelfahrt
 1st day of Autumn = Herbstanfang
 Unification Day = Tag der deutschen Einheit
 Harvest Festival = Erntedankfest
 Carnival = Karneval
 Advent Sunday = Advent
 St. Nicholas' Day = Nikolaustag
 1st day of Winter = Winteranfang
 Christmas Eve = Heiligabend
 Christmas Day = 1. Weihnachtstag
 Boxing Day = 2. Weihnachtstag
 New Year's Eve = Silvester

Suggestion: When the two outside columns on Arbeitsblatt 1a are complete, they could be cut up to form a matching game that pupils could play in pairs.

Arbeitsblätter 1b, 1c and 1d - Ein Jahr in Deutschland. Kalenderspiel.

How to play the game:

Divide class into groups of 4 or 5.

Each group will need:

- a game sheet Arbeitsblatt 1c
- a set of cards cut out from Arbeitsblatt 1d
- a die
- an answer sheet from Arbeitsblatt 1b.

One person in the group will not play the game but will check the answers against the answer list on Arbeitsblatt 1b.

In turn, players start on January 1st. They roll the die and move clockwise around the board. When a player lands on a festival, the person with the answer sheet asks the question „Ist dieser Feiertag religiös oder nicht religiös?“. The player must answer e.g. „Der Tag der deutschen Einheit ist nicht religiös“. The answer is checked against the sheet and if correct, the player takes a relevant card * or • (made from Arbeitsblatt 1d). For a wrong answer, miss a go.

The game continues until all the cards are distributed. The winner is the player with the most cards. (For lower ability pupils it might be advisable to omit saying the names of the festivals.)

Game instructions in German:

Spielt in Gruppen von 4 oder 5.

Jede Gruppe braucht:

- Arbeitsblatt 1c
- die Karten von Arbeitsblatt 1d
- einen Würfel
- die Lösungen von Arbeitsblatt 1b.

Eine Person spielt nicht. Er/sie ist Quizmaster/in und hat Arbeitsblatt 1b.

Beginnt am 1. Januar.

Rollt den Würfel und macht einen Zug.

Wenn ihr auf einem Feiertag landet, fragt der Quizmaster/die Quizmasterin: „Ist dieser Feiertag religiös oder nicht religiös?“

Ihr antwortet, zum Beispiel: „Der Tag der deutschen Einheit ist nicht religiös.“

Ist die Antwort richtig, nehmt eine Karte * oder • (von Arbeitsblatt 1d).

Ist die Antwort falsch, müsst ihr eine Runde aussetzen.

Das Spiel endet, wenn es keine Karten mehr gibt. Der Spieler/Die Spielerin mit den meisten Karten gewinnt.

Notes about dates: The date of Easter and its associated festivals varies from year to year. For the purpose of this game, Easter has been placed in April, with Ash Wednesday in February, as this is the most usual.

Erntedankfest (Harvest) is usually celebrated in October.

Variation: After the game has been played once, pupils give the English equivalent instead of saying whether a festival is religious or not. For each correct answer pupils score one point, for an incorrect answer they miss a go. Answers can be checked against Arbeitsblatt 1a.

Solutions:

These are to be found in a list on Arbeitsblatt 1b - to be given to one player in the group.

Suggestions: Arbeitsblatt 1c can also be used as an individual worksheet. Pupils can colour in the different months and then the festivals according to whether they have a religious significance or not. This could be used as display work and done either before or after the game.

Arbeitsblätter 2a and 2b - Christliche Feste und das Leben von Jesus Christus

This exercise helps pupils understand some of the significant events in the Christian calendar and the life of Jesus, by matching events and dates from some of the festivals used in the game earlier in the unit.

Sentences a-j on Arbeitsblatt 2b should be cut out and stuck onto, or copied into, the table on Arbeitsblatt 2a. When complete, it will describe the main events in the life of Jesus.

Solutions:

1 = j, 2 = d, 3 = c, 4 = b, 5 = f, 6 = i, 7 = h,
8 = e, 9 = g, 10 = a

Suggestions: This exercise can be made into a listening activity with the teacher reading the description of the event for pupils to match with the date.

When the table is complete, it could be copied out and illustrated to create display work in German on the life of Jesus.
